

THE PLAY TROUPE OF PORT WASHINGTON

presents a Reading of

THE BIGGEST THIEF IN TOWN

a Comedy in Three Acts by Dalton Trumbo

directed by FRED FARAH

*****

Cast of Characters

Bert Hutchins, Mort. . . . .	John Cradley
Jay Stewart, M.D. . . . .	George Wiley
Horton Paige, Editor . . . . .	Alan Wile
Lauris Hutchins, Danseuse . . . .	Dorin Oltarsh
Buddy Gwynne, Dancer . . . . .	Dick Dunham
John Troybalt, Financier . . . . .	Abbott Brown
Jared Rumley, Advisor . . . . .	Walter Darby
Miss Tipton, Nurse . . . . .	Dolly King
Rolfe Willow, M.D. . . . .	McCrae Cobb
Sam Wilkins, Druggist . . . . .	Fred Farah

The Time - a Spring night in 1948.

The Place - Bert Hutchin's Funeral Parlor in Shale City, Colorado from which can be seen, atop a mountain, John Troybalt's enormous mansion called Mount Miracle.

The Director acknowledges with thanks the assistance of George Wiley and the Troupe's Production Chairman.

April 25, 1953

Parish Theatre

*****